

Dear 4-H Goat Leaders and Members:

The 4-H/FFA Breeding Goat Show at Troy Fair will be held on Friday, July 26 starting at 9:00 A.M. in the Sheep Barn. Entry forms have been included-they are due at the Extension Office on June 1, 2019.

Penn State Ethics and Quality Assurance Training:

All 4-Hers enrolled in animal projects will be required to attend a training and fill out a survey by July 1. See your leader for options and available trainings.

All completed projects are due at the Fairgrounds on Saturday, July 13 by 2:00pm if you plan to interview at Round- up. If you do not plan to interview books are due in the Extension Office on Thursday, July 11 at 5 p.m. If your books are not turned in on time, you will not be eligible to show your project at 4-H Roundup.

You will need to complete the new Breeding Livestock and/or Livestock Record Book. Complete 4-H Activity Book. Project Poster. Oral Presentation to the club. QAM certificate attached.

Youth must also complete an Activity Report and a Story. This story should include information on experiences with the 4-H animal project, what was learned from completing the records, experiences gained from being involved in the 4-H Club, etc.

If your books are not turned in on time, you will not be eligible to show your project at 4-H Roundup.

If you want to know how you will be judged there are score sheets at the Extension Office and your leader will also have these score sheets.

You must receive at least a white ribbon on your project in order to show.

 Note, missing whole sections counts as a zero and costs you all the points for that section.

Your 4-H/FFA youth Goat Show entries have been included. They also are available on the Bradford County Cooperative Extension Website in the 4-H and Youth Section under Member Resources.

Any youth that does not clean out their goat pen will be charged a $10 fee.
