Jerseys: Animals must be registered in the herd register of the AJCA and have HR or GR status. Animals with Genetic Recovery (fully registered) certificates are eligible. This does not include Original Animals (OA), Provisional Registry (PR) animals, or J 1 animals.

Ayrshires: Ayrshires must be 87% purebred Ayrshire on the registration certificate as verified by the Ayrshire Breeders Association.

Guerneys: Females in Step 4 of the Genetic Recovery program are eligible. Step four females have a "GR" prefix in their name. No other prefixes are eligible.

MANURE REMOVAL POLICY: Exhibitors are responsible for the removal of all wet manure/bedding from the barns to a central location point. We suggest you bring a wheelbarrow to share with other club members. Stalls are to contain dry bedding only when you leave the barn.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT: There is no other event in our area that draws a larger number of people with little or no agricultural background than the Troy Fair. This is a great opportunity for 4-H and FFA members to show agriculture in a positive light and to educate the public on the very positive aspects of agriculture and the dairy industry.

Exhibitors should be willing to explain daily tasks and to answer questions from people viewing their animals. If you are asked a question you are not sure how to answer, find the nearest leader, extension agent, or parent and have them help you explain. Showing dairy cattle is a learning experience for the 4-H member as well as the people visiting the fair.

Wash Rack: Only Sheep and Goats will be allowed to use the back of the wash rack on Monday, July 24th until 2pm.

No dairy cows are allowed at the wash rack on Monday, July 24th from 6am – 8am. 4-H Round Up Requirements

4-H projects will be displayed in the Linda Ballard Hulslander 4-H Building. They must be entered and judged on Saturday, July 15 between 10:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. Projects must remain on display and will not be released until Saturday, July 29 after 10 p.m. or Sunday, July 30 between the hours of 10 a.m. and 1:00 p.m.

Dairy* - Members select and care for one or more registered or grade calves, heifers, or cows and keep records each year. Enrollment is due June 1.

Project Level – Project and Record book, which is meant to be used with any of the Resource Handbooks. For each year of the project, you should complete a new project and record book, including the required learning activities and experiences for your age level, the quality assurance activities, and the animal records section. If you have more than one animal, you should have a complete set of animal records for each one.

There are three project levels:

Beginner – Members with no experience in a project area, or those who are 8 to 10 years old.

Intermediate – Members with some experience in a project area, or those who are 11 to 13 years old.

Advanced – Members with experience in a project area, or those who are 14 years old or older.

Project Guidelines

Along with a 4-H story and 4-H Activities report, members must complete:

1. Enrollment for dairy roundup is June 1
2. Identify your project goals and objectives
3. Complete the Member Project Guide of this project and record book, including the following:
 - a. One or more topics of interest (if you give an oral presentation on topic of interest in your club, it will count as a learning activity.)
 - b. Four new learning activities (beginner); Five or more learning activities (intermediate and advance)
 - c. Two or more learning experiences
 - d. Two or more leadership and citizenship activities
4. Complete one activity in the Quality Assurance section.
5. Complete the Animal Records section.

The section is designed mainly for keeping individual animal records, but you will find that some records, such as milk production, can be used for herds too. Before you begin, review all the records carefully. If you have more than two project animals, copy pages as necessary so that each animal has a set of individual records it need. Bring this book and all copied page with you to book roundup.
6. Take part in a club project review.

In a meeting with your parent, club advisory, or project helper, share your project records and what you have learned. Explain how you have grown as a 4-H member and your progress toward personal and project goals.
7. Take part in county project judging.
